On travel departure and return days, travelers receive 75% of the per diem allowance, regardless of the time of departure or return. Allowance based on the rate at the location where the traveler spent the night prior.
• Select appropriate department(s) from the dropdown menu.
• Enter fund/org and a list of designated “Approvers” will populate.

- If your department will be paying less the 100% of your expenses you can notate that in the provided section. You may also note additional fund/orgs that may be charged for travel.

- Populated based on the traveler’s User Profile, can be changed as appropriate.
Commuting mileage:
• Commuting mileage must be reduced from the reimbursable mileage expense when a traveler leaves or returns on a week day.

Mileage Rates:
• Personal rate, (currently $0.575 per mile), when personal vehicle is used for travel that does not exceed 280 miles per day.
• Fleet rate, (currently $0.246 per mile), when personal vehicle is used for travel that exceeds 280 miles per day.
  • Travelers are required to access the Enterprise Trip Calculator (https://dgs.virginia.gov/fleet/travel-planning/trip-calculator/) when planning a trip that involves traveling more than 280 miles per day.
Primary Transportation – Rental Vehicle

The Traveler will be reimbursed at the fleet rate, UNLESS:

- Per-day mileage is under 280.
- Personal vehicle is less than the cost of an Enterprise vehicle.
- Vehicle is sold out for the requested day(s)
- The driver is younger than 21 years of age.

- Non-state employees must provide documentation if such coverage does not exist.

- International Travel: All travelers must purchase appropriate insurance and will be reimbursed for all reasonable, necessary and actual insurance premiums.

Learn about Transportation: https://fiscal.gmu.edu/travel/use-transportation/
Motor pool will make payment to Enterprise on your behalf and debit your fund/org through the University recharge process. Motor pool may provide you with a University fuel card for use with your Enterprise rental during official travel.

- Additional information can be found, here: https://transportation.gmu.edu/motor-pool/
- Training requirements & restrictions may apply
Primary Transportation – Air & Rail

- Payment of commercial airfare or rail travel is appropriate when traveling on university business.
- Airline and rail travel cannot exceed the rates charged for tourist or coach class accommodations.

The Following are NOT reimbursable expenses:

- “Enhancements” to the coach fare, including situations when the upgraded seats are the only ones available on a desired flight.
- Travel protection/insurance
- Acela service on Amtrak

Review the Flight Comparison and Travel manual for more information.
Non-refundable economy/coach class must always be selected.

Exemptions are permitted for the following:

Air:
- Travel to western Europe and business meeting is conducted within three hours of landing
- The travel is for transoceanic, intercontinental trips of more than eight hours

Rail:
- Reserved coach seats are not offered on the route

Air & Rail:
- The traveler agrees to pay the difference.
  - Comparison based on date of purchase, and uploaded to Travel Voucher

ALWAYS Include appropriate documentation for exemption requests.
Primary Transportation – Travel Arrangements

• Travel arrangements can be made using any travel agency, ticket provider or online service.

• The following must be uploaded and attached to the Travel Reimbursement Voucher:
  • The confirmation document (all pages) generated at the end of the reservation process showing total cost and class of service
  • When a paper ticket is issued, the passenger receipt (ticket stub)

The Mason traveler is responsible for ensuring that he/she is complying with State and University travel policy.

For more information review the “Booking Travel Online” page on the fiscal services website.
Fly America Act

When federal funds are used, provisions of the Fly America Act are applicable and international travel is restricted to a U.S. air carrier unless circumstances meet the qualifications for a waiver.

• Please use the Fly America Act Decision Tree prior to booking international travel.

• For more information please visit http://osp.gmu.edu.

Lodging Rates

- Lodging expense reimbursement varies with the travel destination [season].
- Lodging rates are governed by the U.S. General Services Administration (GSA).

“Standard Rate” will apply for locations without specific rates.

- Verify travel dates.
- If travel includes multiple destinations, adjust dates for this location as necessary.

(Updated annually October 1)
Lodging Rates

TRNS will provide lodging rates based on location identified on the previous page. Including the Maximum rate (Conference lodging rate)

- Lodging costs up to 200% of the basic rate requires electronic approval in advance.
- Lodging costs greater than 200% of the basic rate must be approved at least 14 days prior to trip.

The total daily lodging amount for Mason travelers sharing a room cannot exceed the maximum daily lodging rate for a single traveler.
Lodging Rates

Lodging reimbursement requests must be supported by an itemized hotel bill, and attached to the Travel Reimbursement.

Itemized hotel bill should include the following information:

- Hotel name and address, Charge details (including, taxes and fees)
- Business related expenses (Internet, business calls, etc.)
  - Note Business purpose on bill as appropriate
- Zero balance

For hotel rooms obtained through internet providers, the traveler must upload and attach the entire receipt (all pages) from the internet site showing total cost and confirmed services.
Lodging Rates

The following situations require prior approval from the travel office at least 14 days prior to trip:

- Exceeding the maximum lodging rate
- Alternative Lodging
- Local lodging

Each request requires:

- A fully approved travel authorization
- Explanation of the circumstances justifying the request
- Cost comparisons statement - Include a lists of three hotels in the vicinity of the event/requested lodging and their rates

DO NOT make a purchase or deposit without documented approval
Alternative Lodging

In addition, requests for alternative lodging should include the following documentation:

✓ A comparison showing the total cost for alternate accommodations and net savings.
✓ Payment, Cancellation and Refund policies
✓ Length of contract

Alternative lodging requests must be submitted to travel@gmu.edu for approval 14 days prior to making the purchase.

Because of concerns that these services are not regulated and do not protect users to the same extent as commercially regulated business, university employees choosing to use these services do so at their own risk.

Please review the Alternative Lodging Guide for more information.
Local Area Travel

• Reimbursements may NOT be given for local lodging.
  • Defined as locations within 25 miles of the work place, office or home.
  • Prior approval required

• Reimbursements may be given for non-commuting, local business travel expenses.
  • Including trips between campuses or to other locations to attend meetings or trainings, to deliver paperwork, etc.
  • Travel may be by personal vehicle or Local Transit (i.e., Commuter bus/train, shuttle, taxi, Uber, Lyft, etc.)
Candidate & Guest Travel

- Departments are encouraged to organize travel arrangements in advance via P-Card and Direct Bill, as available.
  - The Purchasing Office has negotiated contracts with several hotels in the local area.
- Reimbursements may be processed for travel related expenses. The following must occur if reimbursement is expected:
  - Complete and return the Substitute W-9, Submitted to papadmin@gmu.edu to create a G# for the visitor.
    - Instructions for International Travelers.
  - Use TRS “Delegate Login” to process Authorization/Reimbursement, as appropriate.

Please review the Host a Candidate page for more information.
Meals & Incidental Expenses

Per diem rates for meals and incidental expenses are also governed by the GSA (http://www.gsa.gov/mie)

- Per Diem must correspond to the location specified for the overnight lodging, and include the following:
  - Meals, including taxes and tip/gratuity*
  - Transportation to meals
  - Personal telephone calls
  - Laundry expenses
  - Tips to baggage handlers

- “No-cost” meals must be deducted in TRS

- On travel departure and return days, travelers receive 75% of the per diem allowance.
  - Return day allowance is based on the rate at the location where the traveler spent the night prior regardless of the time of departure or return

*Maximum gratuity is 15% (If gratuity is automatically added to your bill, the total gratuity cannot exceed 20%)
Miscellaneous Expenses

Examples of expenses that may be reimbursed:

- Internet charges
- Business calls
- Facsimiles
- Data transmission charges
- Passport and visa expenses
- Vaccination fees
- Registration fees

Some expenses may require documentation of the business purpose for the charges incurred.
Unallowable Expenses

Examples of common expenses that are NOT reimbursable (not all-inclusive):

- Alcoholic beverages
- Damage to personal property
- Expenses for non-business companions
- Lost or stolen articles
- Movies charged to hotel/motel bills

Travel Reimbursement

Travel Reimbursements MUST be submitted as soon as possible, requests submitted more than 60 days after trip completion are subject to taxation per the IRS.

- Once the trip is complete the traveler/delegate should process the reimbursement from the authorization, if applicable.
- Attach all required documentation and receipts for reimbursement to the travel voucher.
- Approvers should make every effort to review and electronically approve or return travel vouchers within three business days.
- Original receipts should be retained by the traveler until reimbursement of expenses is received.
Travel Reimbursement

For previously authorized trips, the traveler will enter actual amounts to replace cost estimates where appropriate.

Initiate reimbursement requests in the TRS for standard overnight trips costing less than $1,000 with basic rate accommodations or trips that include mileage or transportation only.

Multiple “transportation only” trips may be consolidated into monthly travel vouchers.
The TRS gives an opportunity to verify the information submitting an authorization or when preparing a reimbursement. This screen will give the ability to edit authorization information – And/or – Update for reimbursement requests.

This is where you will be able to add additional information (location, lodging, event, etc.)
Information Verification

The TRS gives an opportunity to verify the information submitting an authorization or when preparing a reimbursement.

This screen will give the ability to edit authorization information – And/or – Update for reimbursement requests.

- Review and update
- Attach receipts, documents, etc.
- Add Comments, as appropriate
Role of Approver

Authorized Approvers/Supervisors, Fund/Org Approvers and Optional Approvers must review all travel authorization and reimbursement documents before electronically approving.

 APPROVER ACTIONS *****

After logging in and reviewing the travel document, including any previous approvals, you may:

1. Approve the document as submitted by selecting "Approve" and the "Complete" button to send the document to the next approver.

OR

2. Not approve the document as submitted by selecting "Return to submitter with comments" and "Complete" to return to this document to the submitter. You will use this option to completely disapprove the travel authorization/reimbursement or to request corrections/adjustments to the travel document. Whenever this option is selected, you must complete the "Reason" box to explain why you are returning the travel document. Examples of reasons include, "travel not approved, inadequate budget" or "this authorization not approved, please charge org xxxxxx instead of org yyyyyy.", or other appropriate comment. When "Return to submitter with comments" is selected, the travel document is returned to the submitter and may be revised by the submitter and re-submitted to the approval process.

If you select "Save & Close", your work on the travel document will be saved and the travel document will be retained in your account and included on your Worklist; the document will not be processed further.

If you select "Cancel", the document remains in your Worklist in its original form, any work you may have done is not saved.

Approval certifies that the travel and expenses were necessary and incurred while on official Mason business.
